

Brendo and Glen completed their recce yesterday ahead of this weekend's Rally of Whangarei, round three of the Asia Pacific Rally Championship.

Despite Glen feeling a little unwell, the recce went very well and the pair are looking forward to today's Shakedown.

Road conditions could prove to be a challenge during the rally with Brendo reporting dry and dusty conditions.

Rally Whangarei gets underway tonight with a Ceremonial start in the central New Zealand north island town, with stages to be run on both Saturday and Sunday.

Check back later for Brendo's report from Shakedown.
