

Brendan and Rhianon have completed day 1 of the Pirelli Star Driver Shootout in Spain. The day was a training day run by Robert Reid, former co-driver to the late Richard Burns, and covered topics such as fitness and sponsorship.

Day 2 (Saturday) will see the drivers get out onto the stages. Brendan will share a car with Zimbabwean competitor, Dudley Chase Attwell. Chase Attwell will be amongst the first group of eight to tackle the stages, with Brendan in the second group. Each competitor will drive four stages - a 5km gravel stage and a 3km tarmac stage, each repeated twice, whilst the judges look on. All competitors will drive Ford Fiesta R2s.

Shootout participants will be interviewed by the judges on Sunday, and the winners will be announced at the conclusion of WRC Rally Spain.
