

Brendan Reeves is Australia's top young international rally driver and will enter his first year in the World Rally Championship in 2011, in the newly developed World Rally Championship Academy Series.

With his older sister, Rhianon Smyth, co-driving, Brendan will be one of six Pirelli Star Drivers selected from around the world vying for the top of the podium in a field of 24 drivers aged under 25.

In 2011, Brendan and Rhianon aim to build on previous experiences in the Australian Rally Championship and Asia-Pacific Rally Championship by winning the World Rally Championship Academy Series.

So, if you're a rally fan or not... get behind this young and exciting local rally team and be part of Brendan and Rhianon's World Rally Championship assault in 2011.

The Brendan Reeves Supporters Club is a must for you or your business and aims to help provide Brendan's growing fan base with the latest news and views as he climbs his way up the rallying ladder.
