

Brendo and Rhianon have finished an impressive third fastest in this morning's shakedown for the NGK Rally of Melbourne.

Driving their Les Walkden Rallying Subaru, Reeves and Smythe were the first non-Toyota in the field, and easily quicker than Ford's Darren Windus and the Subaru of Glen Raymond.

Championship leader Simon Evans was fastest, with his team-mate, Neal Bates, just 0.1 of a second faster than Reeves.

The rally starts tomorrow morning (November 10).
