

"We are really happy with our result this weekend. It was an enjoyable but incredibly challenging rally so to come away with a podium place is fantastic, and it's a great way to celebrate our 50th rally together."

"Last year we didn't have any podium finishes so to have two from two events is a great start to the season and has given us really valuable Championship points."