

Brendo and Rhianon have entered this weekend's Robertstown Walky 100 Rally in South Australia in order to gain some extra time behind the wheel and more pace note experience.

The event, which is Round 2 of the South Australian Rally Championship, has attracted a top quality field, and Brendo will start as Car 7.

Heading to South Australia today, the team will undertake recce on Friday, before Saturday's event.

"We are looking forward to the rally," Brendo said. "It's a good chance to get a bit more practice under our belts before we head to New Zealand next week."

Brendo and Rhianon will contest the event in their Subaru RS.