

Brendan and Rhianon have enjoyed another successful day at Targa Tasmania. On day 4 of the event, the pair moved their N Performance Hyundai i30 N up to sixth in class and 16th place overall. The longest day of competition featured six stages, all of which were run in wet conditions due to consistent rain.