

Day 5 of Targa Tasmania consisted of another six stages, including the longest of the rally, the 52.9-kilometre Mount Arrowsmith stage. Once again the N Performance Hyundai i30 N driven by Brendan and Rhianon was up to the task and the pair have continued their excellent performance in the event. They currently hold 6th place in the GT2 class and 16th overall.