

Brendo and Rhianon will head to South Australia later this month to compete in the Southern Rally, the final round of the 2008 South Australian Rally Championship.

Competing in his Subaru Impreza RS, Brendo will use the event to gain further pacenoting experience, and having competed in South Australia earlier this year, he is keen to return to the fast, tight roads.

The event comprises recce on Saturday, followed by 11 stages of rally action on Sunday, October 26, covering a total competitive distance of 117 km.